

The Character of Leadership

Nine Qualities that Define Great Leaders

by Jeff Iorg

ABOUT THE BOOK

Seminary president Jeff Iorg believes that character, and character development, are essential foundations for effective leaders. In The Character of Leadership, he writes about how God ever shapes character in the life of every leader, and in relation, how continual spiritual formation is a process to which every good leader must pay close attention.

Iorg puts insightful chapter-long emphasis on nine important character-shaping qualities that help readers in “becoming the leader God intends me to be rather than doing the leading God intends me to do.” The nine qualities are: Integrity, Security, Purity, Humility, Servanthood, Wisdom, Discipline, Courage, and Passion.

BEST-SELLING POINTS

- How God constantly shapes leaders throughout their adult lives is the major theme in The Character of Leadership, focusing on nine distinct character qualities that must always be kept in check.
- Written by a seminary president, this book works in classroom settings as well as for everyday readers of leadership books.
- “This book should be required reading for every minister of the Gospel,” says J. Robert White, executive director of the Georgia Baptist Convention. “The chapter on integrity and no-nonsense chapter on purity are very much needed in our times and worth the price of the book and the investment of your time to read it.”
