

Women Leading Women

The Biblical Model for the Church
by Jaye Martin and Terri Stovall

ABOUT THE BOOK

Based on the precept that a biblical paradigm for women's leadership must occur under the authority of the local church, Women Leading Women fills the void of research-based textbooks that address academic requirements for the core women's leadership course curriculum and guide pastors in how women can help fulfill the church's purpose.

Women will be encouraged to lead and train other women, to engage the culture to reach women for Christ, to involve women in ministry, and much more. Anticipated for primary use in colleges and seminaries, this book is designed for a fifteen-week semester and will include a link to a Web site where teaching outlines and PowerPoint notes for each chapter are provided.

BEST-SELLING POINTS

- Filling a unique scholarly void, this researched-based complementarian academic textbook addresses women's leadership in the church.
- Authors are very active promoters and involved in an organization of women's program leaders from all six Southern Baptist seminaries.
- Major sections in the book are: Biblical Foundation, Leadership Principles, and Practical Application.
